

Nocatee Mad Libs

Exploring the Nature Trails

Today we went on a(n) _____ adventure to explore nature adjective on the _____ trails! The weather was so adjective

_____. We rode our _____ through the adjective type of transportation (plural) _____ trees and past bushes of _____ adjective color flowers. Along the way, we saw a(n) _____ bug/insect _____ in the woods. Luckily I had brought my verb ending in -ing

_____, so I made sure to take a photo! Eventually, we noun reached the _____ river, where we stopped to have a adjective

picnic. We had packed _____ and _____.
food food

While we were _____, I noticed a group of verb ending in -ing

_____. There were at least color animal (plural) _____ of them _____ in the water. number verb ending in -ing

_____, I took another photo so we could hold on to the Adverb

memory! After our picnic, we made our way to a _____ field, where we played several rounds of _____. But as the outdoor activity/game sun began to _____, we knew it was finally time to go home verb an _____. What a _____ day! I hope verb adjective
adjective

tomorrow, we can do it all over again!